

about us

ISINGLASS, INC.

Isinglass, Inc. was launched in the Americas in 2004 by Wayne and Gail Poe. From its conception our focus was to successfully introduce a new, exciting and unique product line into the U.S. hospitality industry and to create a company that reflects our values and high standards.

Isinglass is the premier manufacturer of very high quality buffet, banquet and tabletop presentation ware. We have forged a strong name and reputation in the hospitality industry and can say with assurance we have the most innovative and cutting edge designs on the market. We focus solely on the hospitality sector, working tirelessly to meet the diverse and ever changing needs within this challenging and exciting industry.

More importantly, you will find that we are a company built on high standards and values. Earning and keeping the respect and loyalty of our customers through superior value, quality and service is our ultimate goal. Meeting and exceeding expectations is our mindset at Isinglass.

We are confident that you will be pleased not only with the quality of Isinglass products but with our unique array of offerings. As a company we will continue to strive to stay in the creative forefront of the market by providing you with designs and products that will inspire and build on your creativity.
